

FORMAT FOR PREPARATION OF PROJECT REPORT

1. ARRANGEMENT OF CONTENTS

The sequence in which the Project Report should be arranged is as follows:

1. Title Page [see Template (Appendix 1 & Specimen 1) enclosed]
2. Cover Page (as same as Title Page)
3. Bonafide Page [see Template (Appendix 2 & Specimen 2) enclosed]
4. Declaration by Student [see Template (Appendix 3 & Specimen 3) enclosed]
5. Abstract (see Specimen 4 enclosed)
6. Acknowledgement (see Specimen 5 enclosed)
7. Table of Contents (see Specimen 6 enclosed)
8. List of Tables (see Specimen 7 enclosed)
9. List of Figures (see Specimen 8 enclosed)
10. List of Symbols, Abbreviations and Nomenclature (see Specimen 9 enclosed)
11. Chapters: Though the structure of the report will depend upon the type of the project undertaken, a typical final year project usually consists of the following chapters:

Chapter 1: Introduction

Chapter 2: Literature Review/Problem Background

Chapter 3: Problem Statement and Methodology

Chapter 4: System Design/Analysis/Experimental Work/ Simulation

Chapter 5: Results and Discussions

Chapter 6: Conclusions and Scope for further work

12. References

13. Appendices (Plagiarism Report, Copy of Papers published in Journals/Conferences, Presentation Certificates of Conferences, etc.)

2. PAGE DIMENSIONS AND MARGINS

Page Dimensions: Standard A4 size (297 mm × 210 mm) paper

Page Margins:

Top edge	:	1" (2.54 cm)
Bottom edge	:	1" (2.54 cm)
Left side	:	1" (2.54 cm)
Right side	:	1" (2.54 cm)

3. TYPING INSTRUCTIONS

Information required for the typing of the Project Report is given below.

3.1. CHAPTERS

Chapter heading and title:	Times New Roman, 14 pts, all caps, bold, centre alignment
Division heading :	Times New Roman, 12 pts, all caps, bold, left alignment
Sub-division heading :	Times New Roman, 12 pts, capitalize each word, bold, left alignment
Running text :	Times New Roman, 12 pts, sentence case, justify, justify alignment
Paragraph :	First letter of the paragraph should be offset 1 cm from left hand margin (i.e., 1 cm left tab); justify alignment; One and a half spacing (i.e., spacing between lines) should be used for typing the general text.

Illustrative example:

Chapter heading	: CHAPTER 2
Chapter title	: PROBLEM BACKGROUND
Division heading	: 2.1. INTRODUCTION
Sub-division heading	: 2.1.1. Types of Straight-Line Mechanisms

3.2. NUMBERING INSTRUCTIONS

3.2.1. Page Numbering

- ✓ The preliminary pages of the Project Report (such as Title page, Bonafide Certificate page, Abstract, Acknowledgement, and Table of Contents) should be numbered using Arabic numerals (i.e., 1, 2, 3,).

3.2.2. Numbering of Tables, Figures, and Equations

- ✓ All Tables and Figures in the text should be captioned and numbered appropriately.
- ✓ The rule for assigning such numbers is illustrated through an example. Thus, if a figure in Chapter 3, happens to be the fourth then assign 3.4 to that figure.

- ✓ Identical rules apply for tables except that the word Figures is replaced by the word Table.
- ✓ Equations appearing in each Chapter or Appendix should be numbered serially, the numbering commencing a fresh for each Chapter.

3.2.3. Table of Contents

- ✓ The template given in the sample may be used for tables of contents.
- ✓ Times New Roman, 12 points, One and a half spacing should be adopted for typing the matter under this head.

3.2.4. List of References

The reference material should be listed in the alphabetical order of the first author. The name of the author/authors should be immediately followed by the book/journal title (italicize), edition, publisher, and year, as illustrated in example below.

1. Abbaszadeh-Mir, Y., Mayer, J., Cloutier, G. and Fortin, C., Theory and Simulation for the Identification of the Link Geometric Errors for a Five-axis Machine Tool Using a Telescoping Magnetic Ball-bar, International Journal of Production Research, vol. 40 (18), pp.4781-4797, 2002.
2. Shigley, I. E. and Uicker Jr., J. J., Theory of Machines and Mechanisms, Second Edition, McGraw Hill, 1996.

4. BINDING OF THE REPORT

After consolidation of the project report in the above format, the project report should be bound using flexible cover of the thick white art paper.

5. PLAGIARISM POLICY

Plagiarism is regarded by the school as serious misconduct. The existing College Plagiarism Policy will be followed for the evaluation of project work also. All FYP project reports should include plagiarism report of their work.
